When the Story is Done

Words and Music © 2007 Leah Van Maaren

Written at the Clyde Convent, June 9, 2007

Intro: E /f# /g# A E /f# /g# A

VERSE 1:

E /f# /g# A
Remember your Creator
E /f# /g# A
Remember the work of His hands
E /f# /g# A
Remember His deeds in Israel
B4
Remember His ultimate plan
E /f# /g# A
There is something bigger
E /f# /g# A
Another story unfolding fast
E /f# /g# A
Without eyes and ears to see it, hear it
B4
How quickly we forget the past

CHORUS:
A E
Without Hope, this life is useless
A E
Without Hope, we aimlessly run
A E
Without Hope we forget the big picture
C#m7 Am E /f# /g# A – E /f# /g# A
And what comes when the story is done
When Jesus comes, the story is done

VERSE 2:

E /f# /g# A
Remember your Sustainer
E /f# /g# A
Remember the depth of His love
E /f# /g# A
Remember His call to holy living
B4
Remember His gifts from above
E /f# /g# A
There is more than this life can give
E /f# /g# A
So much more than the eye can see
E /f# /g# A
Let your heart not be troubled
B4
In this momentary suffering

BRIDGE:

His lovingkindness will endure
His steadfastness is sure